ESTO 101 A: Elementary Estonian

Meeting Time: MTWThF 9:30am - 10:20am

Location: MGH 282

SLN: 14899

Instructor: Guntis Šmidchens

Additional Details:

Why Study Estonian?
Estonian courses are a fun way to satisfy your language requirement, learn more about Estonian heritage, or get acquainted with a non-Indo-European language. Our courses are taught by an exceptional faculty.

How will this impact my career?
In our increasingly global world, proficiency in a foreign language is a big career asset!

What requirements am I filling?
The College of Art and Sciences, the School of Social Work and the College of Education have language requirements beyond the UW admission requirement – studying Estonian through the third quarter fulfills this requirement.

What scholarships are available?
Students of Estonian are eligible to apply for support from departmental scholarships.

Can I study abroad?
Yes! We have a variety of programs for students to study abroad in Estonia and throughout Scandinavia and the Baltics.

How does registration work?
The sequence starts in autumn quarter with ESTO 101 and lasts for three quarters.

Want to learn more?
See what our students have to say about studying Estonian at UW!

Catalog Description:
Fundamentals of oral and written Estonian. First in a sequence of three.

Catalog Description:
Fundamentals of oral and written Estonian. First in a sequence of three.

Status: Active

Last updated: October 5, 2016 - 9:23pm

Department of Scandinavian Studies
University of Washington
318 Raitt hall
Box 353420
Seattle, WA 98195-3420

Phone: (206) 543-0645
Fax: (206) 685-9173
uwscand@uw.edu

Source URL: https://scandinavian.washington.edu/courses/2016/autumn/esto/101/a