Uppsala University Exchange - One or Two Semesters

The city of Uppsala is Sweden's fourth largest municipality. Perhaps best known for its 15th century university, the city also offers visitors beautiful surroundings, a lively cultural scene and a rapidly expanding business sector. Located 43 miles north of Stockholm and with a population of 195,000, Uppsala has evolved from a quiet rustic town to a bustling city of people, cultures and ideas. Uppsala University is the oldest university in Sweden and renowned for providing a highly diverse educational environment.

For information on studying at the Uppsala International Summer Session, please visit their website.