Undergraduate Programs

Undergraduate Advisor: Kim Kraft

Any student at the University of Washington is welcome to take courses in the Department of Scandinavian Studies. We offer a wide range of courses for the student with an occasional interest as well as the student who wishes to major or minor in a Scandinavian topic. Many students in the Department earn double majors in which they combine a Scandinavian major with a second major in such fields as Political Science, History, Communications, Business Administration, English, International Studies, or Germanics, among others. This is possible without exceeding the minimum number of credits for graduation—180 quarter credits.
