

THE DEPARTMENT OF
SCANDINAVIAN STUDIES AT UW
AND THE ROYAL NORWEGIAN
EMBASSY PRESENT THE

NORWAY IN THE UNITED STATES SCHOLARSHIP

Apply for an exciting opportunity for Norwegian majors* at the University of Washington! This scholarship supports a short-term, “day in the life” internship experience at either the Royal Norwegian Embassy in Washington, D.C., or the Consulate General in San Francisco. Successful applicants will receive funding for roundtrip travel, and room and board for one week in June (San Francisco) or September (D.C.).

At the Embassy or Consulate, students will observe and take part in activities, shadowing an employee or intern from Norway and learning about some of the day-to-day realities of a diplomatic institution. The successful applicant should have research and professional interests related to current and international affairs, politics and society, technology, innovation, and Norwegian language and culture. To learn more about Norway’s diplomatic priorities, scan the QR code below.

* We will also consider applications from Norwegian and Scandinavian Area Studies minors and students enrolled in NORW 203 or above during Spring Quarter.

 The successful applicant is encouraged to discuss lodging options with faculty and their hosts.

To apply, submit:

1. A one-page statement of personal and professional interest that answers the following questions:

- What motivates you to apply for this scholarship, beyond general enthusiasm for Norwegian culture?
- What skill set, knowledge, and experiences make you a strong candidate?

2. A letter of recommendation from a faculty member outside the Norwegian program

Application deadline for the Consulate General in San Francisco:

April 15, 2022.

Application deadline for the Royal Norwegian Embassy in D.C.:

June 15, 2022.

Application materials should be submitted to Prof. Olivia Gunn, ogunn@uw.edu, cc Prof. Andy Meyer, meyera@uw.edu.
